AUSTRALIAN COBBERDOG SOCIETY BYLAWS

PROVISIONAL YEARS

The ACS will undergo a provisional phase for the first five years, during which the Founders will provide guidance and stewardship, with the goal of establishing democratic membership self-governance.

PROVISIONAL YEARS ONE TO FOUR - 28 May 2024 to 27 May 2028.

The first provisional four years of the ACS shall have a 'Founding Committee' composed of up to 9 volunteer members. Of these 9 founding committee members the Office Bearers will be elected as follows: President, Treasurer, Secretary with the remaining (up to) 6 members of equal positions with no titles.

The Founding Committee is ratified by a majority vote. If during the four provisional years the Founding Committee number falls below nine, the remaining members shall appoint, by majority vote, a replacement.

FIFTH PROVISIONAL YEAR - 28 May 2028 to 29 May 2029.

The fifth provisional year shall operate in the same manner as provisional years 1-4, with the Founding Committee electing Officers by 28 May 2029 by majority vote from their own numbers to serve one-year terms.

During the fifth provisional year, the revised Bylaws will be placed before membership-at-large for discussion and vote, establishing the future democratic election procedure and structure of the Society. Elections held will follow the democratic process outlined in the newly revised, membership ratified Bylaws.

Notes:

- During the five provisional years, the Founding Committee may at any time by unanimous vote determine to shorten the term of provisional years if they deem that a fully democratic process of membership self-governance can be achieved and sustained by membership in a shorter time period.
- These Bylaws will be evaluated and revised by the Founding Committee in the fourth provisional year and placed to membership vote in the fifth provisional year. To preserve the democratic structure of the Society, the election process must be democratic with full membership nominating and electing the Office Bearers.

- In the sixth-year membership has the opportunity and obligation to step forward to serve in leadership and committee positions. Under the Provisional Years Plan outlined in this document, members of the Founding Committee will be tasked with revising the election process to conform with the will of membership.
